Leghorne, Sept. 21. N. S.

THE Confederate Squadron from Naples, continues ſtill here, but will proceed to Barcelona, ſo ſoon as one of the Men of War, which ſprung her Maſts, is refitted. Theſe Ships will take under their Convoy, ſeveral Engliſh and Dutch Merchantmen, together with four Ships belonging to the State of Genoa. The Marquis d'Albici is arriv'd here from Florence, being appointed to go to the Court of France in Quality of Envoy from the Great Duke of Tuſcany. They write from Florence, that the Abbot de Livri is arriv'd there from Paris, and will ſhortly continue his Journey from thence to Rome, where he is appointed to act as Auditor of the Rota for France. The Venetians have nominated the Procurators Lezze and Piſani, to go in Quality of Ambaſſadors Extraordinary from that Republick, and compliment the King of Spain upon his Arrival at Milan, to which Place they are repairing accordingly.

Vienna, Sept. 26. N. S. It being expected that the King of Spain is upon the point of departing from Barcelona, the Count de Paar ſet out from hence on the 22d, in order to wait on his Majeſty upon his Arrival in Italy; and ſeveral other Perſons of Quality are preparing to follow him. The Marquis d'Ariberti, Envoy from Spain to the Republick of Genoa, is making the neceſſary Preparations for his Majeſty's Reception there; and they are likewiſe fitting up the Ducal Palace at Milan on the ſame Occaſion. The Senate of Venice have appointed two Ambaſſadors to repair thither, and Congratulate his Majeſty, in the Name of the Republick, upon his Arrival at that Place. The Baron d'Imhof, Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of Wolfenbuttel, will continue at Barcelona, in order to be aſſiſting to her Catholick Majeſty in the Council of State during the King's Abſence. Monſieur Nedezky, one of Prince Ragotzky's principal Adherents, and his Envoy to the Czar of Muſcovy, arriv'd here ſome time ſince, in order to make his Submiſſion; and was very favourably receiv'd by her Imperial Majeſty.

Dreſden, Sept. 26. N. S. They write from the Camp before Stralſund, that all the neceſſary Preparations were forwarding there, in order to make a Deſcent on the Iſle of Rugen; without the Reduction of which Place, it is thought all Attempts upon Stralſund will be ineffectual. In the mean time the Suedes, who are apprehenſive of their Enemies Deſigns, are putting themſelves in a Condition to make a very vigorous Defence. King Staniſlaus, who was ſaid to have retir'd to the Iſle of Rugen upon the Approach of the Confederate Army, is ſtill in Stralſund, from whence he makes frequent Sallies on the Troops that lye before it. It is reported here, that there will be an Interview, towards the End of the next Month, between the Kings of Denmark and Poland, and his Czariſh Majeſty. Our Letters of the Nineteenth from Warſaw adviſe, that ſome Turkiſh Ambaſſadors are arriv'd at Caminieck, and have demanded of the Grand Treaſurer of the Crown, a Protection for their Perſons, and the uſual Subſiſtance. The Subject of their Commiſſion is not yet known; but it is believ'd they are inſtructed to propoſe a Peace between the Kings of Poland and Sueden, of which we ſhall be more fully inform'd after the Audience they are to receive of the Palatine of Maſure, and the Field Mareſchal of Lithuania. General Janus, having obtain'd Leave for ſix Months from his Czariſh Majeſty, has left the Army, and is ſpeedily expected in Sileſia. Theſe Letters add, that the Palatine of Kiovia, who has committed great Diſorders in his Excurſions in the Palatinate of Lemburg, and the adjacent Parts, is gone to wait on the King of Sueden at Bender. Our Advices from that Place are very doubtful as to the Intentions of his Suediſh Majeſty; ſome Letters aſſuring us, that he was ſet out from thence under a ſmall Guard, and others affirming, that his Majeſty reſolv'd to continue there this Winter, and endeavour to induce the Port to eſpouſe his Intereſts more effectually the next Spring. It is certain that the Janiſaries are forming ſome Deſigns againſt the Grand Vizir, in which they are encourag'd by the Cham of Tartary, who is much offended at his Proceedings in relation to the Peace concluded with the Czar of Muſcovy.

Frankfort, Octob. 1. N. S. On the Twenty-fifth of the laſt Month the Elector Palatine arriv'd here; and on the Twenty-ſeventh a Courier came Expreſs from Italy, with Letters to his Electoral Highneſs, importing, that the King of Spain was preparing to ſail from Barcelona. Count Sinzendorf having been to confer with the Prince of Savoy, is gone to Vienna, from whence he will proceed to Italy, in order to wait on his Catholick Majeſty at his Arrival there. The Elector Palatine has been viſited, ſince his Arrival, by the Electors of Mayence and Treves, as well as by all the Miniſters of the abſent Electors. Signior Albani, the Pope's Nephew, has lately receiv'd new Inſtructions from the Court of Rome, and continues to make preſſing Inſtances in Favour of the late Electors of Cologn and Bavaria; but there is no Probability of his ſucceeding either in that Affair, or his other Pretenſions, which he has urg'd with great Zeal in behalf of the Pope, his Uncle. It having been propos'd to quarter twelve Regiments of Foot, and ſix of Horſe, this Winter in Bavaria, the Count de Sinſheim is arriv'd here from thence, with Orders to ſollicit that a leſs number may be ſent into that Duchy; which being much impoveriſh'd, will be unable, without many Hardſhips, to ſubſiſt ſo great a Body of Forces. They write from Spire, that a great Sum of Money has been brought thither for the Payment of the Army belonging to the Empire. The French ſuffer extreamly for want of Forage; for which Reaſon, the greateſt part of their Cavalry is ſent from the Lines of Lauterburg towards Haguenau and Strasbourg. All the Towns and Villages ſituate on this ſide the Rhine, are order'd to furniſh daily a certain Quantity of Hay, Straw, and Oats, for the uſe of the Forces under the Command of the Prince of Savoy; which being to be deliver'd at Philipsbourg, will be conducted from thence in Waggons to the Army.
